Two Wives Ended His 'New Life'

SAN JOSE, Calif.—"I didn't want two wives," says Brian Wahlken. "Things just got mixed up and I couldn't straighten them out."

The jobless, 22-year-old draftsman married his wife, Jenny, 24, a year ago, and "there were bills, bills, bills . . . I had to get away from it all."

So he married Rachel Belasco, 22, in November. He planned a divorce from Jenny and "it was going to be a new life"—but Jenny and Rachel, both pregnant, met, talked and turned him in.

Oranges Will Be Orange

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate unanimously passed a bill Monday which would permit the use of artificial coloring to make oranges orange.

A coal-tar color used for many years to tint orange skins was termed potentially harmful, and banned.

A new coloring material has been developed.

FALSE TEETH
can't be cleaned like natural teeth

Let's face it. Unsightly stains often appear on plates and false teeth . . . and ordinary brushing won't remove them.

Steradent removes the most stubborn stains gently, safely. Steep your dentures in Steradent regularly every day—it will keep both teeth and plate pure, stain-free and fresh.
